John Raff has sold his house and lot to Mr. S. Riggs, and will again build a new house on lots just north of his present location.

Mr. A. S. Hankins has bought out McNutt Bros. in the meat market business and will continue the same at the old stand.

One of the fine horses belonging to Mr. Graves, which has been driven to the hack, died Tuesday morning. It was a valuable animal.

The excessive heat of last and the fore part of the present week was changed somewhat for the better by the rain Monday night.

Hay ricks were badly blown down by the wind storm Monday night. Farmers say they have never seen anything like it heretofore.

Never before have the store and shop windows looked so enticing and beautiful as now, when the fall and winter fashions are displayed in effective style.

J. J. Casmere & Son are prepared to repair tin roofs with cement at lower rates than heretofore charged for soldering. Better work and satisfaction given.

Mr. John P. Spear, father of Mrs. S. Tozer, and Mrs. S. J. Crow, of Neodesha, are visiting at Iola and called to look through the REGISTER office last week.

A projected musical party at the residence of Mr. J. H. Richards on Saturday night, was postponed on account of the absence of the genial host, at Topeka.

No particular damage was done by the high wind Monday night although small houses were over turned and large ones shaken up at a lively rate for a short time.

The two hay-presses near the L. & S. depot have resumed operations with a full force of hands. Farmers, when you come to town, bring in a load of hay, and get ready cash.

We are glad to understand that the schools is starting out satisfactory in all its departments. The discipline throughout all the rooms is admirable, and promises to be maintained.

Mr. J. D. Moore, now of Shell City, Mo., was in town this week and made us a pleasant call. He thinks of moving back to Allen county and probably will open a stable at Moran or Bronson.

Mr. W. H. Evans left for Washington yesterday to take a position in the pension department. He is a reliable man, and will doubtless do well, but we are exceedingly sorry to lose him.

Societies, clubs, and social cliques are making plans for the winter campaign. We have now plenty of material for social and literary activity, and we predict a lively winter in these directions.

Mary J. Ferris lectured at the M. E. Church on Africa, or the dark continent, Wednesday evening last. She had many curiosities such as shells, plumes, flowers, &c., The lecture was not too well attended.

A. S. Hankins having purchased the meat market formerly run by McNutt Bros. would respectfully solicit the trade of the old firm and as many new customers as may find their way to the old reliable shop.

Quarterly meeting service in the M. E. church on Sabbath next. Communion in the morning. Love feast meeting at 3 p. m. Elder C. B. Rice will be present and preach in the evening. The public are invited to all these services.

The best iron and tin roof paint will be found at Casmere's. It will not scale or break and is as cheap as the ordinary tin paint. Call at Casmere's and be convinced that they have the best article in the market.

Deputy sheriff Canady, of Woodson county, will be after us with a shot gun, sure. In mentioning the arrest of two horse thieves, we got the names mixed and Canady's name went in the report as one of the thieves. The Yates Center News is hilarious over the mistake.

An agent traveling in the interest of the National Marriage Aid Association was in town this week. It is founded on the same plan as other beneficiary organizations, and we presume will end as some of these things have. It is astonishing how many such schemes have sprung up in the past year.

A postal card from a man in a neighboring town came to hand this week in which he states: "My job came to hand to-day and is O. K. in workmanship and material, also style." Such words make us feel good and we note them for the purpose of adding that the REGISTER aims to give satisfaction always.

Among those who went to Eureka last night to help institute the K. of P. lodge at that place, were N. F. Acers, P. H. Harris, J. C. Gordon, T. M. Powell, Dr. A. Gifford, B. A. Casmere, Gus. Meister, Jos. Otten, L. B. Roach, and others. The boys will go to Fredonia before their return, to institute a lodge at that city.

The Beedle and Prindle Pleasure Party entertainment at the opera house Tuesday evening was well attended and was pronounced a first-class performance. Their silver cornet band furnished excellent music in the afternoon and evening. Should they return they will be favored by a still larger house next time.

From parties who were present at the largely advertised Finticum meeting at Salem, we learn that the attendance was very light, only 18 or 20 being present. One put the number at nearly 25. From the amount of wind heretofore indulged in we presumed the meeting would be attended by a respectable number at least.

A match game of base ball was played at Blue Mound, Saturday the 16th inst., between the Ozark and Blue Mound clubs, the former club winning by a score of 34 to 15. The Ozark club challenges any club in Anderson, Allen, Bourbon or Linn counties to play them on their grounds for bat and ball.

F. J. REYNOLDS, Captain.

Four handsome brick buildings on the north side of the square is a starting point from which will grow others. It is not unlikely that within a few years that side will contend with the south and west sides for the supremacy. Parties who own wooden shells and vacant lots on the two last named locations will consult their own interest by improving soon.

Work commenced upon the foundations of two brick and stone buildings this week to be erected on the north side of the square. Mr. Casmere will build a two story brick and stone thirty-three feet wide and eighty or one hundred feet deep. Messrs. W. J. Ihrig, and A. S. Hankins will also build a similar building of the same depth, the width we did not learn.

Mrs. Tozer now has the largest stock of green-house plants ever seen in Iola, all sold at popular prices. Geraniums, Begonias, Foliage plants of all kinds. Roses, Carnations in fact it is worse than useless to attempt to name even a few of the beauties in her green-house. Give her a call and see for your self, you will be sure to go home with your arms full of plants—at least your wife will.

If the city was able to have the job done it would pay to build a large cistern near the southwest corner of the square, put in a force pump and purchase sufficient hose to reach to the extreme limits of either side. Or it would pay the business men on the two sides named to raise sufficient money by subscription to pay the cost. Wells cannot be relied upon to furnish sufficient water.

If the music furnished by the band and orchestra of the Beedle and Prindle Pleasure Party were a fair index of its merit in other directions, it would be a very meritorious company indeed, for no such music has been heard on our streets for years. But it would be a stretch of charity to speak in unqualified praise of their performance on Tuesday night, though much of it was creditable, particularly the man that bated to hear the women "talk, talk, talk."

W. J. Beall, a painter who has been working at his trade in this place was arrested last Saturday for adultery, upon complaint made by one Tavis, of Rich Hill, Mo. Some time ago Mrs. Tavis packed her trunk and skipped out and last week her husband came over and found Beall and Mrs. Tavis living together at this place. He caused the arrest of Beall and finally persuaded his wife to return home. Beall plead guilty Tuesday morning and was sentenced to pay costs of suit and ten days in the county jail.
